

The AAA Prescription for Safety

MEDICATION AND DRIVING

Learn the Facts

medication and driving

NEARLY HALF OF AMERICANS

reported taking at least one or more prescription drugs in the last 30 days.

ONLY 1 IN 4

drivers consider driving under the influence of prescription drugs a very serious threat.

In the last decade, the number of Americans taking at least one prescription drug INCREASED BY 10 PERCENT, and the use of multiple prescription drugs INCREASED BY 20 PERCENT.

The use of five or more prescription drugs INCREASED BY 70 PERCENT.

Prescription drugs were found in 46.5%

of drugged drivers involved in fatal crashes, and the percentage has increased steadily since 2005.

how medication can affect driving

Trouble staying alert or awake

Difficulty maintaining control of the vehicle

Difficulty concentrating on the road

Changes in demeanor

See how medication can affect your ability to drive safely at AAA.com/RxDrugs